WASHINGTON LETTER

(Special Correspondence.)

The fact that the Russian ambassador, Count Cassini, and his daughter, Countess Cassini, have been guarded for several months by secret service men developed upon their recent visit to New York city. The Russian ambassador went to their hotel in a carriage. The secret service men followed them in another carriage and remained all day about the hotel. Count and Countess Cassini attended a performance at a Broadway theater, where the secret service agents were just as much in evidence as they had been about the hotel earlier in the day.

The explanation is given at the state department that information was received four months ago that Japanese in this country harbored designs to kill or harm the count and countess, and at the request of the Russian government, but against the wishes of Count Cassini, secret service men were detailed to guard the ambassador and his daughter against attack.

A Remarkable Book.

The second smallest book in Washington is in the library of the navy department, and it is a volume of considerable interest and value. The book is about two inches long, one and a half inches broad and one-third of an inch thick. It was published in London in 1783 and contains an exhaustive account of the sinking of a British man-of-war, the Royal George, off Spithead in August, 1782. The binding of this remarkable book consists of two oaken boards, sections of the cabin's wainscoting of the ill fated ship. It is understood that the original binding was torn off and the oaken binding put on by an officer who secured the board from a section of the Royal George at the time it was raised and removed from Spithead harbor.

Naval Hospital Estimates.

In his annual report the surgeon general of the navy, Rear Admiral P. F. Hixey, has submitted the following estimates: For improvements of the hospital at the navy yard, Washington, $80,000; naval hospital, Sitka, Alaska, $10,000; renovation of present hospital at Norfolk and additional $200,000; removal of present hospital buildings and erection of quarters for medical staff, naval hospital, Pensacola, $50,000; acquisition of additional land adjacent to naval hospital, Yokohama, Japan, $3,000. Recommendation also is made for a naval hospital at the naval station, Charleston, and one at the naval station, Olongapo.

Capital Enlargement.

Few questions to come before congress at the December session are of greater importance than that involved in the proposed enlargement of the capitol. It will be recalled that the senate last spring, instead of authorizing the enlargement of the capitol, for which the house had a second time voted, established a joint commission to investigate the subject. Its report is nearly ready. Of the two plans chiefly under consideration that involving the smaller extension will probably be recommended, which means that the front of the capitol will be brought out just far enough to give the dome a solid base instead of having it rest on a portico on its east front, as now.

New Swiss Minister.

Dr. Leo Vogel, a lawyer and secretary of the Swiss legation at Berlin who has been appointed minister to the United States, was, it is said, secretary of the Swiss legation at Washington about ten years ago, and, according to the practice of the Swiss government, is now eligible for promotion to the higher grade of minister.

Mr. Fernand du Marthay, the present Swiss minister to the United States, was appointed in February, 1903, but is now away on leave of absence, and the affairs of the legation are in charge of Mr. Ernst Probst, secretary of legation.

Emperor William's Gift.

Emperor William's gift to the American people of a bronze statue of Frederick the Great will be unveiled by the Baroness Speck von Sternburg, the German ambassador, on the esplanade of the army war college, Nov. 19, in the presence of the president, the cabinet, the diplomatic corps, the supreme court, the admiral of the navy, the chief of staff of the army and officers of the army and navy in Washington. The principal address of the occasion will be made by President Roosevelt.

Bishop of Washington.

After having been without resident bishop for two years, the Methodist Episcopal church in Washington now has Bishop Earl Cranston, until recently stationed at Portland, Ore. The appointment of Bishop Cranston as resident bishop of the District of Columbia was made at the last general conference of the Methodist church, held at Los Angeles in May.

His term of appointment is for four years, and he will be the head of Methodism at the capital for that length of time. Bishop Cranston is one of the most distinguished prelates in the United States. While not so well known in Washington, except to the clergy, he has a reputation on the Pacific coast.

Continental Hall.

Continental hall, the building to be erected by the Daughters of the American Revolution south of the Corcoran Gallery of Art on Seventeenth street, is expected, when finished, to be one of the handsomest structures of its kind in the national capital. The cornerstone was laid with appropriate ceremonies last April. The building is to cost not more than $300,000. Marble is to be the material used. The frontage on Seventeenth street is to be 210 feet and the structure is to occupy 35,000 square feet of ground. The first floor will be devoted mainly to an auditorium, which will have a seating capacity of 2,000.

THE HUMOR OF JAPAN

JOKES THAT AMUSE THE NATIVES OF DAI NIPPON.

Some Samples of Their Characteristic Funny Stories—The Doctor Who Didn't Fear Burglars—The Writing Critic Who Couldn't Write.

In a review of a collection of funny stories called "Kokkei Hyaku Showa" by Mr. Kubo Tendzu the Japan Weekly Mail quotes the following as being peculiarly characteristic of Japanese humor: A certain government official who in olden times used to be called a "dalk-wan," but now is known as a "guncho" (head of a district), having been recently appointed to a certain district, was engaged in a tour of inspection when his notice was attracted by the approach of an old man who was too tipsy to walk straight.

Wondering who the intoxicated man could be, the district officer accosted him and after much difficulty ascertained that he was the head of the village which he had come to inspect. Thinking it to be his duty to make use of the occasion for obtaining reliable information, the district officer asked the toper how many houses and how many people there were in the village. "There are 100 houses and, males and females included, 60 persons in the village," replied the man. Puzzled, the officer asked, "How can that be?" "There is nothing wrong about that," replied the head of the village. "Besides these sixty there are any amount of people in the village, but since they are creatures who know not what it is to drink they are not, I take it, worthy of being mentioned."

Once upon a time it happened that five or six burglars, armed with swords and shouting like men attacking an enemy on the battlefield, came bounding into the house of a certain doctor. The whole household, with the exception of the master, were paralyzed. They felt as though iron chains had been placed around them, and not one of them moved hand or foot. They watched in terror to see what would happen, when, lo and behold, the robbers took their departure without stealing a thing. Though they could not tell what was the meaning of this strange proceeding, certain it was that the family was safe. But where was the head of the house? After searching through the rooms they found him in his dispensary. There he stood in the midst of the drugs, medicine spoon in hand, looking fierce and triumphant. "What are you doing here?" inquired one of the members of his household. Smiling, he replied: "Those robbers were perhaps as noted as Kumasaka Chohan, but they may thank their stars that they have got off with their lives! Had they pushed matters a little further and entered this dispensary not one of them would have left it alive." Amused by this remark, one of the members of the family rejoined: "Without a sword or a pistol how could you have killed these robbers? Can you kill robbers with a spoon?" Whereupon the doctor, with fine self assurance, replied: "How many thousands of lives have I taken by means of this spoon! What to me are the lives of five or six robbers? Lucky chance to get off as they did!"

The son of an extremely illiterate peasant was in the habit of bringing his copies home day after day, his hands and face covered with the ink that should have gone on his copy. Thinking it well to exercise his paternal authority over the lad even in regard to his school-lessons, the father one day commanded the boy to show him his writing. Looking over with the air of an expert penman, he criticized various strokes: "This stroke is too long; this one too short. These two strokes are too far apart," observed the father.

"But," said the boy, "the writing master tells us to write them as I have done." "Show me the copy," jerked out the father. The boy produced the copy, which his father began to examine closely upside down. "Why, you are holding it upside down!" exclaimed the lad. Not to be beaten, the father replied: "Don't be so conceited! I am holding it for you to look at, of course. You could not read it were it turned the other way. Listen to what is said to you and don't fancy you know everything."

The above reminds us of a story that concerns Taira Kiyomori. It is related that in the time of the Heiji rebellion the rebels attacked Kiyomori's camp very suddenly one day. Losing his presence of mind, Kiyomori put on his armor in a great hurry, the back part front. Some persons near pointed out the mistake he had made. "You have put your armor on the wrong way," they exclaimed. "It is not so," calmly answered Kiyomori. "As the emperor is coming behind I have put on the armor so as to have the front part facing him. It would be impolite to have the back part of one's armor facing an emperor." Without altering it he went out to battle.

The term "yabu" is applied to doctors who prescribe wrong medicines. Now, it happened once that a quack having been the means of killing the only son of a certain house, the parents determined to have their revenge on him. So they sued him at a court of law. The affair was eventually patched up by the worthy quack giving the bereaved parents his own son in return for the one he had killed. Not long after this event the said quack heard a loud knocking at his door one night. On going to the door he was informed that one of his neighbor's wives was dangerously ill and that his presence was required at once. Turning to his wife, he said: "This requires consideration, my dear. There is no knowing but that it may end in their taking you from me."

MENTAL PROPS.

Various Things That Give Us Confidence in Ourselves.

We each have the need of our mental "prop." One woman tells me that when she wishes to give decided orders to her cook she always puts on her hat and gloves, then, as she floats into the kitchen surrounded by a cloud of dignity and courage, she feels equal to the occasion.

Good and well fitting clothes are props to us all and bring about a certain confidence in ourselves, a sort of mental pat you on the back, which says, "Brace up, old boy; the shell is perfect; let's hear from the kernel." To the little school miss on the day of the entertainment what a prop is the bristling blue sash.

The doctor depends much upon his gloves. He can be busy with them when vital or difficult questions are asked. They are a sort of moral safety valve.

For the bashful boy who is deprived in the hall of hat and gloves before entering the room filled with people if some good fairy would only hand him a book to occupy his hands so he need only look after his feet what a prop it would be to him!

A clergyman's prop lies in well fitting vestments.

As for the writer of this article—I speak with the authority of most intimate acquaintance—she must have her hair arranged in the way she affects it and her shoes on to cope with life's emergencies. She finds the wretched old world rather a jolly place and loves to watch frail humanity leaning gently upon their "mental props," while they are happily quite unconscious of her scrutiny.—Jeannette Young in Critic.

Wakwak Were Birds of Paradise.

Readers of "The Thousand and One Nights" will remember the islands of Wakwak and the marvelous adventures of Hassan of Baisora and the princess with the dress of feathers. Dr. Alfred Russel Wallace suggests that the islands were real and that they can be identified with the Aru islands, the home of the great bird of paradise.

The name "Wakwak," he thinks, may be an imitation of the call of the birds, and the story of Hassan's visit to the islands of Wakwak may be based on the actual adventures of some traveler who discovered the haunts of the birds of paradise.—Youth's Companion.

THE CONGRESSIONAL VOTE

Hon. Theodore A. Bell carried the following counties by the indicated majorities: Colusa, 428; Glenn, 208; Lake, 207; Napa, 301; Yolo, 139. His opponent carried the following counties by the indicated majorities: Butte, 381; Marin, 1038; Mendocino, 483; Sacramento, 416; Sonoma, 31; Sutter, 143; Yuba, 77. According to the returns so far received Congressman Bell ran 8000 votes ahead of the ticket but the unprecedented Republican landslide carried his opponent into office with a majority of about 1200.

HOW THE TRUTH SOUNDS

In Missouri an editor of a weekly paper announced that he would tell the truth for one issue of his paper, and here is how some of the items read:

"John Doyle, our groceryman, is doing a poor business. His store is dirty, dusty and notoriously odoriferous. How can he expect to do much business?"

"Rev. Stytz preached Sunday night on charity. The sermon was punk. If the reverend gentleman would live up a little closer to what he preaches, he would have bigger congregations."

"Dave Sankey died at his home in this place Saturday. The doctor gave out that it was heart failure. The fact is he was drunk, and whiskey is what killed him. His house was a rented shack on Rowdy street."

"Married—Miss Sylvia Rhoden and James Carnahan were married last Wednesday evening at the Baptist parsonage. The bride is a very ordinary girl who doesn't know any more about cooking than a rabbit, and never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means and has a gait like a fat duck. The groom is well known as an up-to-date loafer. He has been living off his folks all his life and doesn't amount to shucks. They will have a hard life while they live together, and the news has no congratulations to offer, for we don't believe any good can come of such a union."

The new Sonoma County Board of Supervisors will be composed of: J. A. McMinn, (D); Blair Hart, (D); I. J. Butten, (R); H. W. Austin, (R); G. A. Armstrong, (R).

At the next session of the new Congress which will convene in Washington on March 4, 1905, the Republicans will have a large majority in both houses.

The Republicans will have a good majority in the next California State Legislature.

PRESENTED A GOOD SHOW

The Fletcher Select Vaudeville Company played to crowded houses in Sonoma on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Wm. Fletcher, Edith Fletcher, Miss Marshall and Mr. Douglas are each artists in their line and the company lived up to their statement on the posters in saying: "1st act, you laugh; 2nd act, you scream; 3rd act, you yell."

CURED CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c, $1, at Simmons' drug store.

Gov. Pardee has issued a proclamation setting apart Thursday, Nov. 24, as a day of general thanks.

GLANDERS IN NAPA COUNTY

Several horses in Napa county, as well as in this county, have lately been found to be afflicted with glanders and have been killed in order to prevent a spread of the dread disease.

A PHYSICIAN HEALED.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced using Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success." Sold by L. S. Simmons, druggist.

WAS AWARDED DAMAGES

Mrs. Ed. Dowd of Petaluma, formerly Mrs. Sarah Guyon, has won her suit against the Pacific Mail Co., which company she sued for damages on account of the sinking of the company's steamer City of Rio Janeiro off Golden Gate in 1901. According to a decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, she is entitled to damages for the loss of her husband the late Harry Guyon, who was one of the 120 passengers who were drowned on account of the awful accident.

FOOLED WITH DOBBIN.

A number of Glen Ellen boys, the other day, attempted to tie a tin can to a horse's tail, just for fun.

The horse kicked. A boy fell with an ugly gash in his forehead. Dr. Crepin was called to sew up the wound. The boy is getting a long as well as could be expected, but it was a miracle that his skull was not fractured.

The boys are now satisfied that what will work on a dog, won't necessarily work on a horse.

Roadhouse Held Up

Two Gun Men Relieve the

Proprietor of Coin and

Gold Watch

Last Tuesday night at about 6 o'clock two highwaymen held up the proprietor of a road house at Melita, J. Holtman, at his place of business and robbed him of over $20 and his gold watch. Mr. Holtman claims to know the parties and their early apprehension is expected.

Sheriff Grace captured the two prisoners at Kenwood Wednesday afternoon. He started in a rig to Holtman's roadhouse, where the two men, Cameron and Corman, were identified as being the robbers. On the way to Santa Rosa Corman obtained permission to leave the rig and started to run away. The sheriff pursued. The other prisoner took the gun left in the rig and attempted to hold up the sheriff when he returned.

Wm. Underhill and Mr. Murphy came to the rescue after the officer had been shot at twice. Poor marksmanhip is all that saved the officer's life.

LATER.

Corman made his escape but for a brief time only. He was captured at half past four yesterday afternoon near the Suco hotel between Napa Junction and Napa asylum. He was going to meet his mother in a cabin in the woods when he walked right into the arms of Sheriff Grace who had shortly followed the woman to the meeting place, and Sheriff Dunlap of Napa. The prisoner was immediately taken to the S. P. depot and thence to Santa Rosa last night and lodged in jail. Word was sent to his mother that her son would not be at the cabin last night.

The Pleasures of Youth.

WHAT WE MISS.

Do you remember the little things that gave us so much pleasure when we were young? With what zest did we sit down to the table after our play was over and eat the mush and milk our mother put before us, which tasted like the nectar of the gods. But as we get older it takes more to give us pleasure. Mush and milk no longer tastes good to us, and our digestion may be impaired. We are told we cannot eat this or that because it is bad for the stomach. The fact is that whatever our stomach craves it pretty nearly always digests. "What is one man's meat is another man's poison." If there is something in the way of meat, vegetables or fruit that we long for, then our stomachs are pretty sure to take care of that article.

The reason is that the appearance of the longest-for article will cause the saliva to pour forth from the glands, the juices from the stomach are increased, and as a consequence the stomach does the rest. Through the constant churning into our ears that certain things are indigestible, we lose a great deal in the pleasures of the table and our stomach is weakened by taking many foods that are pre-digested or so easily digested that the stomach is weakened from non-use, just the same as the muscles of our arms will become small and weak if not used. The best advice we can give to such a person is to forget what you are eating. Don't listen to carpers or health-food cranks. Tune up the stomach with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is nature's most valuable and health-giving agent—made without the use of alcohol. It contains roots, herbs and barks, and is the concentration of nature's vitality as found in the fields and woods. This remedy has a history which speaks well for it because it was given to the public by Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., nearly forty years ago, and has since been sold by druggists in ever increasing quantities. Some medicines, tonics or compounds, enjoy a large sale for a few years, then disappear from the public attention, but Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved such a reliable blood remedy and tonic that it often enjoys the confidence of several generations in a family, and its increased sales year by year coming from the recommendations of those who have tried it, prove its lasting merit, so that every bottle bears the stamp of public approval.

Every other well-known blood-maker and tonic for the stomach that we know of contains alcohol, but Dr. Pierce guarantees that no alcohol is contained in his "Medical Discovery." This remedy works in the natural way, for it corrects the irregularities of the stomach by promoting digestion and assimilation. The blood is cleansed and fed on proper nourishment, the nerves get rich red blood, and in consequence nervous troubles disappear, for they are often due to improper nourishment. Neuralgia is the cry of the starved nerves for food. Feed the nerves on pure rich blood, and nervous symptoms will disappear. The result of indigestion and dyspepsia is that the person's blood becomes thin and watery because it is not fed on that nourishment which it should take from the food, and the person becomes nervous and sleepless. Dr. Pierce's "Medical Discovery" gives a healthy tone to the stomach, liver, blood and heart. Drink plenty of water between meals—hot water on arising in the morning, and three doses of "Discovery" per day, and we would almost guarantee that you will be able to eat anything you like after a month or two. At the same time, you are putting your body in such a healthful condition that you are capable of warding off the attack of any germ disease. With proper food for the stomach, pure air for the lungs, exercise and cleanliness at all times, one gets healthy nerves, lungs, heart and liver, and by stimulating the organs into activity with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery when necessary, can laugh at disease.

"Please accept my thanks for your wonderful medicine, 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which has brought me from the bed to a healthy man again," writes G. W. Brisco, of Abilene, Kans. "When I began taking your medicine I was run down in health and flesh, had no appetite, had heavy pain in abdomen, headache, backache, dizziness, shortness of breath, also eyes were weak, could not do any work. After I got Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser it told me just what was the matter and what I should take to gain health. My cure has remained permanent. After using five bottles of Golden Medical Discovery, I am now able to do a good day's work and do it with ease. The relief was something that I could not describe. It has enabled me to do my work steadily ever since."

FREE! Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors on Wednesday the matter of the petition for a franchise for the electric road that will connect the Schocken stone quarries with the tide water, was set for public hearing at eleven o'clock Saturday morning.

A number of claims against the county were considered and other routine matters discussed. A number of friends called to congratulate the two members of the Board who were re-elected at Tuesday's election.

The trial of the murder charge against J. Silone will begin next week. A number of witnesses will be called and the trial will be of some interest.

FAVORED BY BOTH PARTIES

Republicans and Democrats alike praise Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases, as no other remedy can compare with it. It is safe and sure. F. T. Slater, merchant, 171 Main St., Gloucester, Mass. writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured me of a very bad cough which I had for three months though other remedies failed to benefit me. I can highly recommend it for coughs and colds." Sold by L. S. Simmons, druggist.

Good Manners

Depend much upon good health. If the women of to-day lose in comparison with the women of Washington's day in the matter of fine manners, it may be in no small part due to the fact that most women suffer from womanly diseases. It is very hard to be polite and courteous, suave of manner and smooth of speech, when pain is thrusting its darts into the body.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the womanly diseases which make women nervous and irritable. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It cures headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and other ills which are the result of womanly disease.

"You have my heartfelt thanks for the kind advice you sent me," writes Mrs. Florence Archer, of Eason, Macon Co., Tenn. "Words fail to express what I endured for about eight years with female trouble. The awful pain that I had to endure each month, no tongue can express. These bearing-down pains, backache, headache, distress in my stomach and sores in my breast, cramp in limbs—they have all left me and health has taken the place of these distressing troubles. After taking six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and using the local treatment you advised I felt like a new woman."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for women's use.

THE ELECTIONS.

A Great Republican Landslide

All Over the Country

List Of Those Elected and Majorities—Other Details.

The most remarkable campaign in the history of the United States came to a close Tuesday after the shower of ballots had ceased to fall.

Republicans as well as Democrats were surprised at the results—a sweeping victory for the Republican ticket. Majorities ranging into the hundreds of thousands were recorded in many states for President Roosevelt and the other candidates on the Republican ticket.

Another surprising feature was the 660,000 Socialist votes received by Eugene V. Debs, for President.

In our congressional district Hon. Theodore A. Bell ran over 6,000 votes ahead of his ticket, but was defeated by his opponent by about 1000, so great was the Republican landslide.

Blair Hart, candidate for supervisor in this district, was the only Democrat elected in this section of the state. The several majorities will be found below:

THE BEST WAY OUT OF A BAD ROOF

When a roof gets bad it gets so bad that the more patching you do on it the more you will have to. It is an endless expense and annoyance and the best way out of it is to cover it up entirely with Elaterite or Mastic, the roofing that does not wear out or ever need painting or repairing, but gives you permanent protection from leaks. It is made of mineral rubber, is therefore fire-proof, and has the endurance that places it above comparison with anything else in the line of roofing, though costing no more. Ask your local agent for samples, price list and full information, or write to Sam Meyer, Healdsburg, distributor for Sonoma, Lake and Mendocino counties. A. S. Whiting, agent, Sonoma.
